

Maine

In Maine, the food and beverage industry contributes at least $1,020,021,000 per annum in value added to the economy, employs at least 7,755 people, and operates 208 facilities.<sup>1</sup>

The food industry in Maine also relies heavily on strong access to foreign markets, as processed foods account for approximately 9.8% of total non-durable exports.<sup>2</sup>

---

<sup>1</sup>Data from 2006 Annual Survey of Manufacturers or 2006 County Business Patterns conducted by the U.S. Census Bureau

<sup>2</sup> Foreign Trade Division, U.S. Census Bureau